10th Annual

LPS Education Foundation Luncheon

Wednesday, October 30, 2019

12:00 noon - 1:30 p.m.

Keynote Speaker:

William A. Parlberg

Chief Operating Officer,
Zehnder's of Frankenmuth

Bill began his career as a dish worker at Zehnder's of Frankenmuth as a high school Co-Op student. He has worked his way up to his current senior management capacity as President and C.O.O., which he has held since 2000. As President, he oversees the operations of Zehnder's of Frankenmuth Restaurant, which has fifteen hundred seats and is America's largest family independent restaurant, along with Zehnder's Splash Village Hotel & Waterpark, the Fortress 18-Hole Resort Golf Course, and Zehnder's Retail Division. In 2013, Bill was appointed by Governor Snyder to serve on the board as a Michigan Travel Commissioner and is currently serving as Chair. Commissioners are composed of Michigan hospitality operators and owners who help promote tourism, advise the Governor on tourism strategies, and help administer the highly successful Pure Michigan/Travel Michigan marketing campaign to promote tourism in Michigan.
